Specialized content supporting English Language Learner (ELL) proficiency and comprehension

This multipurpose information resource is designed for secondary students and young adult English Language Learners (ELLs) in school and public libraries, as well as others who are new to the English language. ELL Reference Center will help ELLs to succeed academically and in everyday life by providing assistance as they conduct research, build their background knowledge and develop study skills.

Core curriculum content includes 1,000 ELL-specific foundation articles focusing on topics covered in the U.S. curriculum, and is supplemented by hand-selected content to help students broaden topic knowledge and hone English language skills. Customized content is designed to support ELLs' English-language proficiency and comprehension—including literacy, researching, note-taking and academic writing.

▶ Customized content includes:

- Nonfiction articles and reference texts
- Illustrations, diagrams and maps
- Research guides & worksheets
- Audio/Text-to-speech support
- Search tools and support features

- ✓ Literature
- ✓ Life Skills
- ✓ History & Civics
- ✓ Science

ELL Reference Center content covers a wide range of subject area topics—including Science, American History, World History, Civics, Life Skills and Literature—and is written at an age-appropriate level, using vocabulary and simplified structure helpful to non-native speakers.
